

JavaScript (HTML5 + node.js) Web Developer

The chosen candidates will be part of the local team responsible of a major project in the public services field for UNCTAD, a high profile international organization based in Switzerland.

Requirements

- Minimum 3 years of professional experience in developing HTML5 web projects in JavaScript. Familiar with MV* architectures.
- Strong understanding of JavaScript language and ECMAScript standard is required (orientation in ECMAScript 6th edition is bug plus), knowledge of trending frameworks is highly appreciated.
- Demonstrated work experience with JavaScript, node.js, HTML and CSS
- Demonstrated work experience with at least one database management system, proficiency with physical and logical database design. Knowledge of NoSQL databases would be a plus.
- Strong knowledge of Functional and Object Oriented programming concepts
- Good understanding of technical and functional design requirements.
- Very good knowledge of web fundamentals, how web applications works.
- Good problem solving skills
- To be fluent in English (writing, speaking, reading), French knowledge will be a plus

Job Responsibilities

- Adheres to coding standards defined by technical management
- Identifies system deficiencies and recommends solutions.
- Accurately employs our development tools.
- Follows established communication guidelines.
- Develop new modules, improve existing ones, ensure good code management and that your code is sufficiently tested
- Accurately completes and submits time and expense reports in a timely manner.
- Able to work reliably and meet deadlines.

Contact

Send CV at jobs@eregulations.org